

What Our Diversity
Champions Have to Say

Don Cobb, Diversity Champion, speaking...

Q: As a Diversity Champion, what kinds of things do you do?

A: "I periodically go to meetings and try to help advise, and then from time to time I still meet with some of my African American Diversity [Working Group] friends. I just try to make myself available as needed when called on to try to provide input and advice and hopefully things that are helpful in steering the course."

July 2003

